Joint Session of State Legislature begins

Governor Vajubhai R. Vala praises Government's efforts in containing COVID-19 even as Opposition Congress stages protest

Bengaluru, Jan. 28 (KMS & DM)- The seven-day session of the Karnataka Legislature began at Vidhana Soudha in the State capital this morning, with Governor Vajubhai R. Vala addressing the Joint Session of both the Houses.

Vala, who began his speech amidst protests by Opposition Congress members, who took on the Government over various issues, said that Karnataka stands second in the country for milk production. Lauding the State for curbing the deadly COVID-19 pandemic, he highlighted the role of doctors, nursing staff and all other Corona warriors involved in the battle against the contagion.

Highlighting Karnataka's Industrial Policy for the next five years, Vala said that the State is expected to achieve Rs.5 lakh crore investments and creation of 20 lakh jobs during this period. He further said that the Government has released Rs. 5,372 crore to more than 63 lakh beneficiaries from the working class such as labourers, auto drivers, weavers, washermen and barbers, during the COVID-19 crisis.

He also underlined a host of Government initiatives in key sectors like healthcare, infrastructure, irrigation, housing and agriculture.

The Houses made obituary references to departed members M.C. Managuli, S.L. Dharmegowda and other dignitaries and personalities.

Single Screen theatres in city to remain shut

Reason: No clarity in fresh guidelines; No new releases

A handful of audience watching the Tamil movie 'Master' at Padma Theatre in city this morning.

Mysuru, Jan. 28 (RK&SSV)- Even as the Ministry of Home Affairs (MHA) has given relaxation over the capacity in cinema halls and throwing open swimming pools to general public with revised Standard Operating Procedures (SOPs), city theatre owners are unlikely to open their business premises for some more days citing lack of clarity in new guidelines.

The MHA released a fresh set of guidelines last week extending curbs on certain activities till Feb. 28, thanks to decline in COVID-19 cases in all States and Union Territories. Accordingly, it has allowed increase in audience capacity at single screen theatres and multiplexes. Currently, only 50 percent of the seating capacity is allowed. However, the fresh rule was not clear on the quantum of increase in capacity.

M.R. Rajaram, Secretary, Mysuru Film Exhibitors Association, told SOM that the MHA was not clear on the quantum of increase in audience capacity. None knows whether it is 10 percent, 20 percent or full capacity. Without clarity it was not possible to decide on opening single screen theatres. "We don't know about the new SOPs and how simple or stringent it is. Let MHA come out with clear SOPs as we need to spend extra on hand sanitisers and sanitisation of Cinema Halls after each screening."

Govt. makes ration card mandatory to obtain Birth and Death Certificates

Mysuru, Jan. 28 (RK&DM)- In a move that is bound to create problems for a majority of citizens, the State Government has made entry of ration card number in applications for issuance of Birth and Death Certificates by all local bodies and also for availing Government services and benefits extended by all Boards and Corporations.

The Birth and Death Certificates are currently being issued using the e-Janma Software. Now, with the Government making changes in the software for incorporating ration card number, all Registrars and Sub-Registrars have been directed to collect the ration card number.

The order said that those citizens who do not have ration card can generate one from Government websites www.ahara.kar.nic.in or www.sevasindhu.karnataka.gov.in and thus get the number, which can be mentioned in the application for Birth and Death Certificates.

MCC yet to receive order

Meanwhile, MCC Statistical Officer Anil Christi told SOM this morning that the City Corporation is yet to receive the official Government order in this regard.

Admitting that the rule of mandatory entry of ration card number is bound to create problems for citizens at least in the beginning, he said the MCC will go through the Government order and study the implications of the roll out of the new rule.

Pointing out that the MCC will chalk out a workable plan after studying the order, he said that all guidelines regarding filing of applications for getting Birth and Death Certificates will be explained in detail to public through a notification and other means. MCC will implement the rule only after taking all necessary steps, he added.

Vaibhav Vasista

Mysuru, Jan. 28 - Giridhar and Vaibhav S. Vasista, studying in 8th std. at Rotary Midtown Academy, Hootagalli, have been awarded Inspire Award 2020-21 from the Department of Science and Technology. The prize money of Rs. 10,000 per student has been given for their projects.

Giridhar has written project on 'Human Detection Robot'. This project involves building a robot that uses PIR (Passive Infrared) sensors to detect the human presence. It makes use of the PIR Sensor application of sensing the infrared rays that emits when heat is generated from the human body. The application of this project varies from rescue operations to finding out the capacity of humans at a place, like collapsed building where rescue teams cannot operate, and to search the human presence in difficult areas.

Vaibhav S. Vasista has chosen the project to help the society by working on "Automatic Tunnel Sanitiser", which will detect the human, once entered into the tunnel and sanitiser spray will turn on. This project can be useful in public areas, where individual santisation is not possible. It also helps in complete sanitisation.

EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

In what can perhaps be described as India's Capitol insurrection moment protesting farmers upstaged the traditional Republic Day parade by deviating from the pre-designated routes of their tractor rally, violently breaking through Police barricades, clashing with Police personnel, and audaciously storming Red Fort — a symbol of the Indian Republic. They also vandalised buses and Police vehicles as they entered Delhi in large numbers. That such chaos unfolded on Republic Day, when the capital is supposed to be a high security zone, is a monumental security lapse that's comparable to the breach of the US Capitol early this year.

While Farmer Union leaders are now trying to distance themselves from the violence and alleging the role of miscreants in the chaos, there's no denying that the events of the day will tarnish their movement. Irrespective of their grievances, nothing can justify the farmers taking the law into their own hands. That farmers raised the Sikh flag from the ramparts of Red Fort — seen as symbol of Indian national sovereignty which sports the Tricolour — will also be seen as provocative and further delegitimise the farmers' movement. — In The Times of India

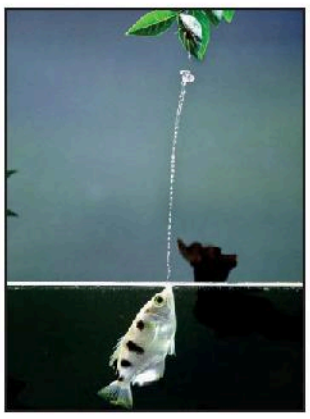
Archerfish shoots water to hunt prey



Bangkok: The archerfish, known for its ability to accurately shoot prey from several meters away with a powerful jet of water generated from its mouth thus earning the title as 'Natural Sharpshooter.'

Toxotes jaculatrix, commonly known as the archerfish, lives in the in mangroves of southern and southeast Asia, where they spend much of their time stalking prey from beneath the surface of the water, ready to hit it with a powerful jet of water, knock it out of the sky or whatever surface it's sitting on, and then swallow it whole. The incredible accuracy of the arrow fish has long fascinated scientists, especially as studies have shown that it can adjust for various factors, like gravity, or the distance its target is at, to maximize its chances of success.

Amazing dress out of plastic cookie wrappers

Tokyo: A Japanese art student has created a life-size dress made exclusively out of thousands of plastic senbei wrappers.

It's unclear how long Twitter user @nokyo spent collecting and piecing together the 4,000 or so wrappers used for this unique dress, but he clearly put a lot of time and effort into the project.

The meticulous designer said that he loves the taste of Happy Tour senbei (traditional Japanese rice crackers), but couldn't source the necessary plastic wrappers himself. He asked help from friends and family, who assist him by feasting on the tasty treats. In total, about 150 bags worth of senbei wrappers were used for this project.

VOICE OF THE READER

Down Memory Lane:

India's First Victory in a Test

Sir,

India's glorious victory down under has brought back memories of a Test match nearly 70 years ago. Though India had started playing Test cricket from 1932 onwards, we had not won a single Test match for nearly 20 years. We would lose most of the matches and occasionally draw a match. India would consider a drawn match as a moral victory.

Then the India Vs England series was held during the 1951-1952 season in India. Thanks to some brilliant batting by Pankaj Roy, Polly Umrigar and Vijay Hazare we managed to draw the first three Test matches. However during the Fourth Match, our batsmen succumbed and we lost the match decisively.

I was then a 10-year-old boy and as we did not have electricity in our newly built house, I used to go to my uncle's house which was only 100 meters away to listen to the cricket commentary.

In the Fifth and Final Test match played at the Chepauk grounds in Madras, India played first and piled up a huge total of 400-plus runs. The spin bowlers also rose to the occasion and we got them out cheaply enforcing a 'follow-on' setting a target of 191 runs to make India bat again. But it was already the fourth evening of the match.

On the Fifth day, our spin bowlers again bowled exceedingly well and Indian spectators smelt victory. In those days, electricity in Udupi was generated and transmitted by a private company and it had specific hours of power cut like from 12 noon to 2 pm, etc. So my elder cousin and I eagerly waited for 2 pm to listen to the commentary. But alas, at 2 pm we heard just "Garr" noise. My cousin told me that once the match is over, the commentators just announce the results and pack up. He felt that either the match was abandoned due to heavy rains or we might have won!

We both had to wait eagerly for the 6.30 BBC news to get the good news that India had won the match by an innings and eight runs. The heroes were the three batsmen mentioned above and the bowlers were Vinoo Mankad and Gulam Ahmad. This was India's first victory in 25 attempts. Though the losing trend continued for the next two decades, only after Kapil Dev became the Captain, winning became a habit.

Incidentally, in the recently concluded match, Australian bowlers by then had taken a combined total of 1,013 wickets whereas the Indian bowlers had a total of 13 wickets between the four of them. Yet amazingly our bowlers scalped 20 Australian wickets!

Six teams to ensure a clean Outer Ring Road

Mysuru, Jan. 28 (MTY&BCT)- Dumping of garbage and construction debris on both sides of the 42-km Outer Ring Road (ORR) by citizens has become a regular affair. Not anymore, as six teams comprising officers from various Departments have been constituted to clean up the mess and to watch out for dumpsters.

Bulk of solid waste bags, plastic, fruit and vegetable waste, synthetic waste and a lot more can be seen rotting, dumped on the road and this menace has cost Mysuru dearly in the Swachh Bharat rankings in the previous Swachh Survekshans.

Mysuru District Minister S.T. Somashekar, who chaired a meeting at the Government Guest House in city on Jan. 26, issued directions on the immediate setting up of the teams for some visible action on the ground ahead of this year's Swachh Survekshan.

"Each Department has been given responsibilities and another round of discussions will be held to fix any more responsibilities or make any changes to the already prepared list of tasks entrusted on the Departments," Somashekar said.

Officials from the Public Works Department (PWD), Rural Development and Panchayat Raj (RDPR), State Highways, Karnataka Road Development Corporation Limited (KRDCL), Mysuru Urban Development Authority (MUDA) and Mysuru City Corporation (MCC) will be a part of the teams. They have the responsibility of making the ORR debris-free and zones have been earmarked for this purpose.

Roles and areas assigned

The 9-km stretch between ORR Circle at Columbia Asia Hospital till Hinkal Flyover Junction has been assigned to the Public Works Department (PWD). The 7.30-km stretch from Hinkal Flyover Circle to Aditya Circle in Dattagalli has been handed over to RDPR.

The 8.39-km stretch from Aditya Circle in Dattagalli to Bandipalya Circle on Mysuru-Nanjangud Highway has been entrusted to the State Highways Department which has also been given the task of clearing flex and illegal hoardings along the entire stretch.

Nirmithi Kendra, Mysuru and KRDCL have been given the responsibility of ensuring cleanliness between Bandipalya Circle till T. Narasipur-Bannur Road ORR stretch, covering a distance of 9.33-km. From T. Narasipur-Bannur road ORR stretch to Columbia Asia Hospital ORR Circle covering a distance of 7.5 km will be handled by MUDA. The MCC has been told to ensure cleanliness around the ORR surroundings besides looking after the hygiene status on the major roads that lead to the city.

MLAs G.T. Devegowda, Tanveer Sait and L. Nagendra, MUDA Chairman H.V. Rajeev, Deputy Commissioner Rohini Sindhuri, City Police Commissioner Dr. Chandragupta, Superintendent of Police C.B. Ryshyanth, MUDA Commissioner Dr. D.B. Natesh and MCC Commissioner Gurudatta Hegde were present at the meeting.

Book cases and seize vehicles

Asking the District Administration to take a tough stand against those dumping waste illegally on the Outer Ring Road, Somashekar has asked officials to book cases against owners of transport vehicles that dump waste on the road and seize their vehicles.

"Issue statements in the media alerting public that dumping of waste on roads, including Ring Road and the city roads attracts penalty and imprisonment," he said at a meeting organised in MUDA premises on Monday in connection with improving hygiene around the ORR.

"We need to act tough against the dumpers bringing in stricter rules," the Minister told MCC Commissioner. Citing the example of Bengaluru, the Minister said that in the State Capital, those dumping waste at undesignated spots are booked and their vehicles are being seized.

"This has enabled Bengaluru administration to effectively handle the menace to some extent and the results are visible with decrease in the dumping of waste at undesignated spots. The same policy must be replicated in Mysuru," he opined and suggested that the Government bodies must come together and bring in changes to the laws for addressing the problems.

The Minister also directed the authorities to constitute joint action teams consisting of officials from MCC, MUDA and the city Police to identify those dumping waste illegally along the roads.

Fire destroys trees, plants at RIE campus, Chamundi Hill

Mysuru, Jan. 28 (YDS&KS)- In separate fire incidents, trees and plants were destroyed in accidental fire at Regional Institute of Education (RIE) premises and Chamundi Hill yesterday.

Passersby, who noticed fire at RIE premises at about 12.30 pm, immediately informed the Fire Station and soon two Fire vehicles from Saraswathipuram Fire Brigade and one from Hebbal Fire Brigade rushed to the spot along with more than 15 fire personnel and succeeded in extinguishing the fire. But the fire had destroyed plants and trees in about 30 acres of land there.

Station Officer Nagaraj Urs, Assistant Fire Officer Raju and staff Shivappa, Devaraj, Manjunath, Feroz Khan, Nandan, Sunil, Shivaramu, Lakshman and others took part in the operation.

In the second incident, fire was noticed near Nandi Statue at about 5 pm yesterday and a fire extinguishing vehicle, which rushed to the spot, managed to douse the fire and prevented it from spreading further.

With summer fast approaching, grass and plants tend to dry up and a small spark can ignite fire which can destroy large portion of land with plants, trees and grass.

Public are urged to be responsible and not throw half smoked cigarettes or beedies or cook food in dried up areas as it may cause fire.

Ex-MP Dhruvanarayan vows to bring back Congress to power in Karnataka

He was recently appointed as KPCC Working President

Former MP R. Dhruvanarayan being felicitated by D. Devaraj Urs Statue Installation Committee on his recent appointment as KPCC Working President at programme held at Jaladarshini Guest House in Mysuru on Wednesday. Committee President Zakir Hussain, State Convenor Dairy Venkatesh, Kanaka Yuva Sene President Krishnegowda and others are seen.

Elated over his appointment as KPCC (Karnataka Pradesh Congress Committee) Working President, former Congress MP from Chamarajanagar, R. Dhruvanarayan said that he will use the opportunity for strengthening the party organisation and work for party's return to power. A day after his appointment, Star of Mysore had a telephonic conversation with Dhruvanarayan. Excerpts.—Ed

By Siddalingaswamy

Star of Mysore (SOM): Your first reaction on being appointed as KPCC Working President?

Dhruvanarayan: I am happy about the appointment. I had a strong desire to work for organisation of the party and now with the appointment, I have got an opportunity to build the party. I will undertake a tour of the State shortly and make efforts to further strengthen the party right from grassroots-level. I will give my best to strengthen the party base under the leadership of KPCC President D.K. Shivakumar and Opposition Leader Siddharamaiah.

SOM: What are your plans for party organisation?

Dhruvanarayan: The Congress party has a long history of public service. All efforts will be made to strengthen the party at booth-level. Loyal leaders and youth workers will be given responsible positions in the party. The Congress will be made into a cadre-based party and the party plans to grow by giving priority to women and other marginalised sections of the society.

SOM: What is the logic behind your appointment at a time when there are no elections round the corner?

Dhruvanarayan: There was a need to make appointments for unfilled positions considering the organisational activities of the party. The AICC had earlier made appointments from three regions of the State and now it has announced the appointments for Mysuru region. The party High Command will take appropriate decisions from time to time.

SOM: Has AICC appointed you on caste considerations?

Dhruvanarayan: The AICC has made the appointment to uphold social justice among castes and communities and also at the same time maintain regional balance in the State party leadership. The Congress is committed for social justice and accordingly the party top brass has made the appointments.

SOM: Is it true that Congress leaders of the State are engaged in shadow-boxing?

Dhruvanarayan: There is no dissidence or discontent in the State Congress. The decision of High Command is final and binding on everyone. There is no individual glorification as the party is bigger than an individual. The BJP is falsely accusing the Congress of leader worship in order to cover up its own follies and misdeeds. It is the habit of BJP to blame others for its failures.

SOM: Who will become the Chief Minister if the Congress comes to power in the State?

Dhruvanarayan: The Congress High Command will decide on the Chief Minister only after the election results are out. The party top brass has the final say in the selection of the Chief Minister, if the party comes to power.

SOM: To which leader are you loyal to?

Dhruvanarayan: I can only say that I am always loyal to the party. My first priority will be to organise the party in Bengaluru region, where I had worked earlier as the party's student leader. I will follow all instructions and directions issued by the KPCC President, Opposition Leader and the Party High Command.

SOM: What's your next goal?

Dhruvanarayan: My immediate goal is to bring back the Congress to power in Karnataka. I will launch widespread awareness and sensitisation programmes on the failures and anti-people policies of the BJP Government in the State and the Centre. The BJP Government has failed miserably on all fronts. The people are fed up with anti-people policies and the Congress will launch a movement against the maladministration of the BJP.

Corona cases decline, but ILI, SARI cases spike

Mysuru, Jan. 28 (SSV)- While Corona positive cases are on the decline, Influenza Like Illness (ILI) and Severe Acute Respiratory Infection (SARI) cases were looking northwards in Mysuru district.

Statistics of number of Corona positive, ILI and SARI cases reported since Jan. 18 till Jan. 27, have revealed the sudden surge in ILI and SARI cases. As against 118 Corona positive cases reported during this period, ILI has registered 116 cases. Even SARI touched 49 cases in the last 10 days.

Missing details

When contacted, a senior officer of Health Department said that data operators had reportedly stopped or under-reported ILI and SARI cases of district due to negligence. This had happened not only in Mysuru district but also in other districts.

Taking strong note of missing ILI and SARI details in daily report, the top brass of Health and Family Welfare Department pulled up the officers of all districts during a video-conferencing last week and instructed them to update whatever ILI or SARI cases are reported daily. Accordingly, data operators have been asked to compulsorily mention about ILI and SARI cases without fail.

Is situation alarming?

The officer noted that the situation was not alarming. Hitherto, they were not reporting cases with mild fever and cough. Now, hospital authorities have been strictly told to mention those cases under ILI.

Similarly, mild chest infection cases were earlier not reported. But now it was recorded under SARI cases. The spike in ILI and SARI cases was quite common during winter season but now they have assumed importance after COVID-19 outbreak.

The State Government was insisting on reporting those cases too as it does not want to take anything lightly, thanks to strict vigilance by Union Health and Family Welfare Ministry. "I am optimistic of ILI and SARI cases coming down once the summer season begins," he added.

Joint Session: Opposition Congress stages protest

The Legislative Council on the first day saw Congress members taking on the Government over a host of issues, including the non-conduct of the session at Belagavi for the past 18 months, the atrocious statements of Maharashtra Chief Minister regarding border row, inadequate funds for projects and inappropriate compensation to farmers who lost crops, cattle and houses due to natural calamities.

The Opposition Congress is all set to corner the Government on many issues which included illegal quarrying, inadequate release of money to farmers hit by last year's floods, shortfall in the release of funds to Legislators' Constituencies for undertaking development works and BBMP elections, among others.

Nomination papers

Meanwhile, BJP member M.K. Pranesh filed his nomination papers for the Office of Deputy Chairman of Legislative Council, which had fallen vacant following the demise of S.L. Dharmegowda of the JD(S) in December last. Pranesh has the backing of JD(S), after the two parties firmed up their alliance to take control of the Upper House. The BJP will support senior JD(S) member Basavaraj Horatti in becoming the Chairman, with both the parties moving a no-confidence motion against the incumbent Chairman Pratapchandra Shetty of the Congress.

Taking on the BJP-JD(S) understanding, K.C. Kondaiah of the Congress too filed his nomination paper for Deputy Chairman of Legislative Council. He submitted his papers to Council Secretary Mahalakshmi in the presence of senior Congress leaders S.R. Patil, Narayanaswamy and B.K. Hariprasad. The election, if found necessary, is likely to take place tomorrow.

The week-long session is scheduled to end on Feb.5.

City theatres to remain shut

He opined that it was like a Catch-22 situation. People would not come to cinema theatres without new film releases of popular stars. The film producers were not ready to release new movies without allowing 100 percent capacity. The Government of India was slowly opening the entertainment zones as and when the Corona situation improves. Ultimately, it was single screen and multiplex owners who were facing problems.

On one hand, the audience was not coming to theatres and on the other hand each cinema owner has to pay a tax of Rs. 31 lakh annually. In the current situation, it was not possible to think about paying so much tax when ticket collection has been negligible, he added. "Our demand for waiving certain taxes due to COVID-19 pandemic is still pending before the State Government. Our industry requires the Government's support to recover from the huge loss suffered due to closure of cinema halls for over 10 months," he said.

It may be mentioned here that hardly a few single screen theatres have re-opened since last two months in city, which are screening old Kannada movies and new movies of other languages. But the turnout of people to movie halls has not been encouraging yet due to the prevailing threat of the contagion.

MUDA Commissioner's car attached over delay in relief to farmer

Mysuru, Jan. 28 (RK&SSV)- The official car of Mysuru Urban Development Authority (MUDA) Commissioner was attached by the Court Ameen Manjunath and other staff for non-payment of compensation to a farmer whose land was acquired in 1997.

Armed with the Court order, the Ameen and others arrived at the MUDA Office this morning and met Commissioner Dr.D.B. Natesh over MUDA's failure to pay compensation to farmer despite the Court's order. When the Commissioner reportedly failed to give satisfactory reply to the Court staff, the Ameen said he would not only attach the Commissioner's official car but also four other cars of MUDA officials. However, the keys of MUDA Commissioner's car were not handed over the Court staff.

In 1997, MUDA had acquired 1.5 acre land in Yandalli village belonged to Chinnaswamy and had fixed Rs.10.61 lakh as compensation. However, the farmer had moved Court seeking higher relief. After much deliberation, the Court directed MUDA to pay Rs.35.5 lakh to Chinnaswamy compensation. But, the MUDA failed to pay relief forcing the farmer to move Court. The Court sent Ameen Manjunath to seek disbursement of compensation failing which to attach movable assets.

270 bird species and six new species sighted at Nagarahole

Black Redstart

Spot-Bellied Eagle-Owl

Greenish Warbler

Nilgiri Flowerpecker

Greater Spotted Eagle

Montagu's Harrier

Mysuru, Jan. 28 (Mahesh, Raghu & BCT)- The four-day bird survey conducted at Nagarahole Tiger Reserve that concluded on Jan. 26 has indicated the presence of over 270 bird species and six new bird species in the National Park.

According to Nagarahole Tiger Reserve Director, D. Mahesh Kumar, this could be termed as a second census as the first census was held during October last year and over 270 bird species were identified. The latest census was done to update the list. In the process, six new species have been identified.

Butterfly and avifauna count was done in October last year with the help of Krushnamegh Kunte from the National Centre for Biological Sciences and experts from College of Forestry in Ponnampet and Bengaluru Butterfly Club.

The census was conducted in 91 beats of the eight zones of the Tiger Reserve and over 75 volunteers from five States — Karnataka, Tamil Nadu, Kerala, Maharashtra and Telangana — and 36 birders from College of Forestry in Ponnampet participated.

Over 224 birds were spotted at Kallahalla Range, 215 in D.B. Kuppe Range, 209 in Hunsur Range, 194 in Anechowkur Range, 191 in Metikuppe Range, 165 in Nagarahole Range, 142 in Antharasanthe Range and 191 birds have been spotted in Veeranahosahalli Range.

The six new bird species that have been added to the known list of Nagarahole Tiger Reserve are Black redstart, Greenish warbler, Greater spotted eagle, Spot-bellied eagle-owl, Nilgiri flowerpecker and Montagu's harrier.

At the concluding event held at Veeranahosahalli, S. Sanjay of Bandipur and B.S. Revath of Mysuru were honoured for spotting the highest species of birds during the census.

Addressing the gathering, Director Mahesh Kumar said that the Tiger Reserve is full of dry deciduous and moist deciduous forests with teak and rosewood, Pala indigo and thorny wattle, sub-montane valley swamp type of vegetation. Though the forest is famous for its tigers and elephants, we can also establish the fact now that the place is a home to over 270 bird species, he added.

"Unless we know what we have, we cannot manage. The bird census enables us to better manage the Tiger Reserve as we can identify the food and habitat regions of particular bird species. It helps ground staff become more aware, be keen observers and better conservationists. Moreover, this is the best time for a bird census as many migratory birds come to the southern regions from far off places," Mahesh Kumar said.

Assistant Conservators of Forests (ACFs) Gopal, Satish and Mahadev, Range Forest Officers (RFOs) Siddaraju, Kiran Kumar, Nama Narayan Nayak and Amith Gowda and K.V. Raju of Eco Volunteers India were present.

Indian farmers stare at bleak future, rues Chukki Nanjundaswamy

H. Ramachandregowda Memorial Progressive Farmer Award conferred

Mysuru, Jan. 28 (MK&SSV)- Chukki Nanjundaswamy, Managing Director, Amritabhoomi International Centre for Sustainable Farming and Development, said that fight for life and death was going on between the powerful companies and farmers without backing. The Government was formulating rules to completely banish farmers from agriculture.

She was speaking after presenting H. Ramachandregowda Memorial Progressive Farmer Award to T.R. Vidyasagar of Tandavapura in Nanjangud taluk, on behalf of Rotary Mysore Midtown at Rotary Centre on JLB Road in city last evening.

"Farmers are staring a bleak future. They are forced to give whatever demanded in market. No law is in their favour. If farmers are staging dharna on Delhi-Punjab border for over two months braving the biting cold against three Farm Laws enacted by the Centre, people in power must know that there should be some reason for their indefinite strike," Chukki said.

Owners of Multi-National Companies (MNCs) had attempted to formulate rules and regulations to see that farmers should not do agriculture in an agriculture-dependent country like India. But it was never implemented due to strong opposition. Now, the companies were finding other means to get their favourable rules implemented. Most of the bi-lateral and open trade agreements have fallen apart. Now, bilateral agreement means secret agreement between two countries, she pointed out.

Chukki said that recently, Regional Comprehensive Economic Partnership (RCEP) has started in Australia, New Zealand and other European countries, and it may start in India too. If this happens, small and marginal land holders and dairy sector would vanish. New Zealanders were on their tenterhook to bring thousands of cows here and sell the milk here. The agriculture sector had seen a lot of development since last 25 years especially after signing the World Trade Organisation (WTO) treaty. Before that, farmers were not committing suicide despite taking loan. But after signing the WTO treaty, the farmers' suicide began, unable to repay debt. So far, around 3-4 lakh farmers have ended their lives.

Nearly 75 percent of the agriculture sector was facing trouble and farmers were unable to come out of it. No political party has come out with a solution to problems of farmers. Why urbanites or middle-class people are not questioning about farmers' suicide?, she noted.

SC upholds HC's order

MLC Vishwanath not to become Minister

New Delhi, Jan. 28- In a major setback to BJP MLC A.H. Vishwanath, the Supreme Court (SC) today upheld the Karnataka High Court's (HC) order of barring Vishwanath from becoming a Minister as he is a nominated member of the State Legislative Council. With this, Vishwanath's hopes of becoming the Minister have been dashed.

The miffed MLC had filed a petition in the Apex Court challenging the HC order. When the case came up for hearing this morning, the Judges observed that the petitioner cannot become a Minister as he was nominated to the State Legislative Council under literature quota whereas R. Shankar and MTB Nagaraj can get berths as their disqualification ceased to be operative once they got elected to the Council from the Legislative Assembly.

'Director Nagabharana is a hill of achievements'

GTD releases book Nagabharana - Cinemavarana

Mysuru, Jan. 28 (YDS&DM)- Stating that noted Film Director T.S. Nagabharana, who came from a small town of Talakad in T. Narasipur taluk of the district, has risen to great heights in the Film Industry, Chamundeshwari MLA G.T. Devegowda (GTD) said that the Film Director has a hill of achievements behind him.

He was speaking after releasing the book 'Nagabharana - Cinemavarana,' jointly edited by columnist Gubbigoodu Ramesh and N.K. Padmanabha and brought out by city's Vismaya Book House, at a programme organised at Rani Bahadur auditorium here recently.

Pointing out that Nagabharana has earned name and fame as an actor, director, producer and theatre person, GTD said that Nagabharana has directed 36 films in a career spanning nearly four decades, out of which 10 films have won National and 23 International Awards.

Noting that Nagabharana, who trained under theatre giant B.V. Karanth, has also directed 36 plays, he said that Nagabharana is credited of being the first director to produce a Kannada serial for Doordarshan.

Stating that Nagabharana is also currently the Kannada Development Authority Chairman, the MLA said that 'Nagabharana - Cinemavarana' is a new experiment and the Kannada film industry should see more of them.

Actor Vijay Raghavendra said that he can never ever forget 'Chinnari Muttha' film, which gave him a big break. Contending that people still recognise him as 'Chinnari Muttha,' though he has grown big with the passage of years, he said that it was Nagabharana, who fine-tuned his acting skills. He further said that he has learnt several lessons on patience, simplicity and concentration from the great director.

Actor Mandya Ramesh, in his address, said that Nagabharana is recognised as a big film personality not only nationally but internationally as well.

Pointing out that Nagabharana, who came from a rural background, could become a renowned Director because of his theatre background and his firm attitude and mind, Ramesh said that the films — Janumada Jodi and Nagamandala — that were directed by Nagabharana, have become text books in Film Academies and Schools in Gujarat and also in Russia. It is a matter of great pride for Karnataka that Nagabharana's films are highly appreciated nationally and internationally, he added.

Senior actor Sundar Raj, in his address, said that the 'Guru' (Teacher) and 'Guri' (Target) of himself and Nagabharana, were one and the same. Recalling the days when he and Nagabharana trained under theatre icon B.V. Karanth, he said that he is associated with the Film Director for over 50 years.

Expressing his wish that Nagabharana script a play, Sundar Raj said that he will fund the play and see that the play is first performed in Mysuru.

University of Mysore (UoM) Vice-Chancellor (VC) Prof. G. Hemantha Kumar, in his address, said that the book on Nagabharana must be introduced as a text book to newcomers, who want to produce films.

Nagabharana's wife Nagini Bharana, Prakash Chikkapalya of Vismaya Book House, District Kannada Sahitya Parishat Mysuru President Dr. Y.D. Rajanna, former MLA Balaraj, Senior Journalist Amshi Prasannakumar, Singer Sangeetha Katti Kulkarni and others were present.

Netaji's concept of 'Samagra Bharat' means clean, strong and great India: Raghu Kautilya

Mysuru, Jan. 28 (MTY&DM)- Maintaining that the concept of 'Swachh Bharat, Balisht Bharat' and 'Shreshtha Bharat' will pave the way for making the country 'Samagra Bharat,' as conceptualised by Netaji Subhash Chandra Bose, D. Devaraj Urs Backward Classes Development Corporation Chairman R. Raghu Kautilya said that we should now make a pledge for realising Netaji's dreams.

He was speaking at the 125th Jayanti celebrations of Netaji Subash Chandra Bose organised by Jai Hind Youth Organisation at Maharshi Educational Institutions in Vishweshwaranagar here recently.

Observing that while Netaji Subhas Chandra Bose was the motivating factor in the freedom struggle, Prime Minister Narendra Modi is now an inspirational figure for everyone, Raghu Kautilya said that it is the responsibility of every citizen of the country to make the PM's ambitious initiative of 'Atmanirbhar Bharat,' a reality by promoting only 'Made In India' goods.

Six personalities, who were presented with 'Netaji Youth Award' at a function organised at Maharshi Educational Institutions in Vishweshwaranagar in city recently, are seen with Vangipura Mutt Seer Sri Ilai Alwar Swamiji, D. Devaraj Urs Backward Classes Development Corporation Chairman R. Raghu Kautilya and others.

Asserting that Subash Chandra Bose believed that India cannot attain freedom only by non-violence means, he said that Netaji established the Indian National Army (INA) for liberating the country from the clutches of Britishers. Netaji is a very inspirational figure for every citizen at a time when the country is facing multiple challenges at the borders from hostile neighbours such as China and Pakistan, he contended.

Six persons were conferred Netaji Youth Award on the occasion. The awardees are as follows: Muthanna - Medical, P. Nanjundaswamy - Social Service, M.K. Vinay Babu - Hotel Industry, Star of Mysore Cartoonist and Fulbrighter M.V. Nagendra Babu (Banter Babu) - Media, Pradeep Gowda - Business and Belavatta Gram Panchayat Member Jabbi Ajju - Social Service.

Vangipura Mutt Seer Sri Ilai Alwar Swamiji, Women and Child Welfare Department Director Renuka Raj, District Brahmins Association President D.T. Prakash, social activist Raghuram Vajpayee, Sarada Vilas Pharmacy College Principal Dr. Hanumanthachar Joshi, Lions Jeevadhara Blood Bank Director Girish, GSS Yogic Foundation President Srihari Dwarakanath, Bhavanishankar of Maharshi Educational Institutions, Congress leader N.M. Naveen Kumar, Jai Hind Organisation President Ajay Shastri, leaders Vikram Iyengar, S.N. Rajesh, Rakesh Bhat, Jayasimha and others were present.

WORD OF THE DAY

Itinerant

Pronunciation: eye-TIN-uh-runt.
Meaning: Traveling from place to place; especially : covering a circuit.
Origin: In Latin, iter means "way" or "journey." That root was the parent of the Late Latin verb itinerari, meaning "to journey." It was that verb which ultimately gave rise to the English word for traveling types: itinerant. The linguistic grandparent, iter, also contributed to the development of other English words, including itinerary ("the route of a journey" and "the plan made for a journey") and errant ("traveling or given to traveling," as in knight-errant).
Example: "At some point Coleman became a Methodist, a denomination whose teachings were being spread by Jesse Lee and other itinerant preachers." — The Ridgefield (Connecticut) Press.

THE ODD WORD

Iamatology

Study of remedies.

PHRASE OF THE DAY

If you can't stand the heat, get out of the kitchen

Meaning: The phrase means if an activity is too difficult or the pressure of a situation is too great for someone to handle, then perhaps it would be best to stop doing it and/or leave.
Origin: It's believed that Harry S. Truman is the one who coined the phrase. He used this expression as early 1942. In a newspaper from that year called The Soda Springs Sun, he was quoted as saying:
"Favorite rejoinder of Senator Harry S. Truman, when a member of his war contracts investigating committee objects to his strenuous pace: 'If you don't like the heat, get out of the kitchen." One can't seem to find the phrase in any newspapers from before the above mentioned time. So it looks like the expression was indeed coined in that year.

QUOTE BOX

If you can organise your kitchen, you can organise your life.

— Louis Parrish

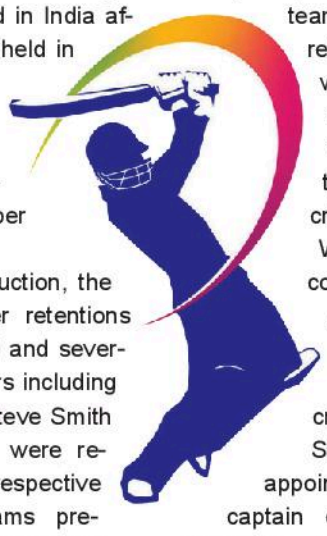
IPL 2021: Player auction on Feb. 18 in Chennai

New Delhi, Jan. 28- The Indian Premier League (IPL) 2021 player auction will be held on Feb. 18 in Chennai, the IPL tweeted on Wednesday.

The 14th edition of the league is likely to be held in India after IPL 2020 was held in the United Arab Emirates (UAE) behind closed doors from September to November last year.



Ahead of the auction, the window for player retentions closed on Jan. 20 and several big-ticket players including Glenn Maxwell, Steve Smith and Aaron Finch were released by their respective teams. Most teams preferred to retain their core even as there were some trade-offs like Robin Uthappa, who joined Chennai Super Kings (CSK) from Rajasthan Royals (RR).

A total of 139 players were retained while 57 were released ahead of the auction.

Players including Harbhajan Singh and Lasith Malinga found themselves without a contract as did Piyush Chawla, Kedar Jadhav, Chris Morris, Mitchell McClenaghan and Moeen Ali among others.

South Africa pacer Dale Steyn had made himself unavailable for Royal Challengers Bangalore (RCB) as well as all other teams ahead of the retention deadline while Steyn's former RCB teammate Parthiv Patel retired from all cricket.

While Harbhajan's contract wasn't renewed by CSK, Malinga retired from franchise cricket altogether.

Sanju Samson was appointed as the new captain of RR after the departure of Smith, who lead the team in IPL 2020. Rajasthan finished at the bottom of the table last season.

Mumbai Indians (MI) won IPL 2020 after defeating Delhi Capitals (DC) in the final in Dubai. It was Mumbai's record fifth title.

Other teams to win the IPL more than once are CSK in 2010, 2011 and 2018; Kolkata Knight Riders (KKR) in 2012 and 2014.
